

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The Nebraska Bankers Association began sponsoring the Personal Economics Program (PEP) 28 years ago to address the need for economic and financial education; and

WHEREAS, PEP has helped bankers serve their communities by fostering strong ties between banking and education; and

WHEREAS, Each year, bankers provide vital information about personal financial management, reaching tens of thousands of students and adults across the state of Nebraska through PEP; and

WHEREAS, Basic education in financial and economic studies can help form a lifetime of habits devoted to saving, wise use of credit and fiscal responsibility; and

WHEREAS, The personal financial responsibility and well-being of the emerging generation is essential to the overall health and welfare of Nebraska's future economic and social conditions.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dave Heineman, Governor of the State of Nebraska, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM the 27th day of April, 2010, as in Nebraska, and I do hereby urge all citizens to take due note of the observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and cause the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska to be affixed this Second day of April, in the year of our Lord Two Thousand Ten.

Attest:

Jim D. Hall
Secretary of State
