Bankers in the News

Mary Byrnes, Lincoln Federal Savings Bank of Nebraska (Omaha) was recently appointed to Omaha Municipal Land Bank board of directors. Byrnes will serve on the finance committee and aid in the development of affordable housing for the Greater Omaha area. (pictured right)

Perry Haralson, Cornhusker Bank (Lincoln) was named second vice president of the Home Builders Association of Lincoln executive committee on Jan. 14.

Taylor Ashburn, West Gate Bank and Ryan Trausch, Lincoln Federal Savings Bank of Nebraska (both of Lincoln) were appointed to the Home Builders Association of Lincoln board of directors on Jan. 14.

Keith Mingus, Five Points Bank (Grand Island) was recently named a member of Hope Harbor’s board of directors.

Banks in the News

Adams State Bank (Adams) donated $10,000 to the Growing Adams Park Project. The donation helped the community reach their goal of $198,328 in 2019.

Cattle Bank & Trust (Seward) recently broke ground on a future branch location at the northeast corner of the intersection of 14th Street and Pine Lake Road in southwest Lincoln. The branch is scheduled to open in the fall of 2020. (pictured right) The bank also opened an in-school branch at Roper Elementary which opened Jan. 30.

Hershey State Bank (Hershey) employees presented a check to Hershey School sixth graders for $1,128 on Jan. 16, to go toward their summer trip to Washington, D.C.
Midwest Bank (Plainview) presented funds to the Plainview Bowling team in February to help with expenses for the team’s competition year. Bank employees paid to wear jeans each Friday and proceeds were donated to the bowling team. (pictured left)

NebraskaLand National Bank (North Platte) employees nominate organizations in their communities to receive monetary donations made under the My Fair Share program. On Feb. 21, the bank will present checks totaling nearly $17,000 to the nominated organizations during the My Fair Share Breakfast. The bank also recently sponsored the North Platte Area Children’s Museum trivia night event.

Waypoint Bank (Cambridge) recently held their first annual Baby Crawling Contest. There were six contestants, and the winner Blakely Vontz, received a trophy and $50 Chamber Bucks.

Promotions & Appointments

BRUNING: Renee Dowdy, loan administrator, Bruning Bank.

BRUNING: Ryne Philippi, senior vice president, chief financial officer, Bruning Bank.

HEBRON: Sonny Manley, president, Bruning Bank.

OMAHA: Tyler Albers, vice president, relationship manager, Cornhusker Bank.

OMAHA: Debi Dodson, account executive, commercial insurance, Arbor Bank.

OMAHA: Jeremiah Gudding, president, commercial insurance, Arbor Bank.

TEKAMAH: Jordan Johnson, board of directors, Washington County Bank.
Share your news with the Nebraska Bankers Association!

Whenever your financial institution has a newsworthy event, we want to hear from you! Email your news, press releases, newspaper clippings and/or photos to be published in an upcoming Banks & Bankers and/or featured on social media.

Email: news@nebankers.org / Facebook: @NebraskaBankersAssociation / Twitter: @nebankers