

“Concealed Handguns Prohibited” Signs

Nebraska residents can be authorized to lawfully carry a concealed handgun in certain public places. However, the state law prohibits concealed handguns in specified public facilities, including financial institutions.

The NBA is offers cling signs (pictured at right) to remind your customers of the law.

Use of these signs is strictly voluntary.

Sign Specifications:

- ▶ Have a white background and graphic of a black gun surrounded by a red circle with a line through it.
- ▶ Measure approximately 8 x 8 inches.
- ▶ Are inexpensively priced at 50 cents per cling sign, plus shipping, handling, and sales tax.
